Winston and Clementine

By Dean Deborah Nutter

Dr. Deborah Winslow Nutter is an active speaker on the topic of the Churchill marriage and an expert on its impact on Winston's policies and career. Her talk, Winston and Clementine, has received high praise from around the Churchillian world and was described as a "tour-de-force" by the younger Winston at the 100th anniversary celebration of the marriage last year at Portland Place.

The after dinner presentation examines Clementine's intellectual development; her early life; her steadfast loyalty to Winston and his sense of destiny; her impact on his thinking and policies, and her shrewd insights into the character of his friends, associates, and political enemies. Dr. Nutter also gives details of the couple's wedding ceremony, a grand social event of huge public interest at the time, drawing an excited crowd of more than 30,000 spectators.

Dr. Nutter is the Senior Associate Dean and Professor of Practice at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University. She earned her Ph.D. in Political Science from Columbia University and has served as President of the Northeast International Studies Association and the New England Political Science Association.
